Hi Patricia, here's a website on how to file a complaint of discrimination in environmental programs, how the process works, how our office resolves complaints: <https://www.epa.gov/ocr/case-resolution-manual>

I'll be in touch next week about scheduling a background interview.

Enesta, Nancy,

I report at The News-Press, a USA Today Network outlet in southwest Florida.

For a story about environmental racism complaints, I'm seeking the right EPA expert to inform our audience about how, today, people can file such complaints; where they can file them; the kind of information the EPA seeks in such complaints; and who reviews them and investigates them.

I would greatly appreciate a short 'expert' phone interview, and expect it to take no more than 15 minutes. (My cell: [Ex. 6] available at your convenience.)

My filing deadline is Tuesday at 4:30 p.m.

With thanks and regards,

Patricia Borns
