WEEKEND WEDDINGS - SETH STEVENSON, senior writer at Slate and author of "Grounded: A Down to Earth Journey Around the World," on Saturday married Jennifer Cloffey, an attorney. He posted on Facebook: "If you get married at New York City Hall they let you take photos in front of this cheesy backdrop." Pic <http://politi.co/2qLD1xV>

-- Republican Hill veteran and head of Google's Washington communications, Riva Litman, yesterday married her long-time boyfriend, financial adviser, John Sciuto at Woodend Sanctuary in Bethesda. Pool report: "Guests sipped Arnold Palmers during the ceremony, officiated by pollster, political analyst, and fellow high school debater, Kristen Soltis Anderson. The epic dessert bar included District Donuts, Ted's Bulletin Pop-tarts, and an Irish coffee bar. ... They both did high school debate team (she was from California and he was from New York) and they met at a debate. Then, years later, they reconnected in D.C. after a re-introduction by Kristen." Pic <http://politi.co/2r8nmt8>

--Kimberly Huey and Peter Schmidt got married over the weekend in Atlanta; they met in DC in line for brunch (a classic DC tale). Peter is an attorney at Mayer Brown specializing in patent and copyright litigation and is from Madison, Wisc. He graduated from Carnegie Mellon, Harvard Law School and Harvard Business School. Kimberly works for the Department of Justice in the money laundering and asset recovery section. She's from Atlanta and graduated from the University of Georgia and then Vanderbilt Law School.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD -- Jeff Blackwood, senior manager for government affairs at BASF, and Sarah Blackwood, president of Sarah Blackwood Government Relations, email friends and family: "We are delighted to introduce you to our son, Ethan Phillips Blackwood. For those who don't know, Phillips is the last name of my maternal grandparents. Ethan was born at 10:13 this Sunday morning, May 21 at the GW hospital in Washington DC. He weighed 8 pounds 12 ounces and measured 21 inches. Sarah was a real champ all throughout delivery, which was free of complications. She and Ethan are both doing well and resting now in our postpartum room at the hospital, where we expect to stay until Tuesday afternoon." Pics

BIRTHWEEK (was yesterday): AEI President Arthur Brooks turned 53

BIRTHDAY OF THE DAY: Richard Keil , EVP for public affairs, crisis and media relations at H+K Strategies and an Exxon-Mobil and Bloomberg alum. How he's celebrating: "I am in Ottawa, Canada, where the tulips rival anything Holland can offer, with my wife Hillary. We just finished celebrating our daughter Haley's graduation from nearby St. Lawrence University, and our two sons, Reid and Alex, were there as well. It is rare for us to get all three kids in one place at the same time, so that's a pretty awesome gift." Read his Playbook Plus Q&A: <http://politi.co/2q8MWu0>
