Re: DuPont v. Tuller & Mooseman

Att. Mr. Spargo.

Dear Mr. Spargo:

The above entitled action was No. 4 on the Day Calendar this morning, but owing to the length of the case and the short time remaining of this Term, the court adjourned the trial to the opening of the Fall Term, which will be September 27th, 1937.

Under the circumstances, I still think that the paints be permitted to remain in the warehouse until the fall, when the action will be tried probably within the first few days of the term.

Very truly yours,

HEH/SS.

Harry E. Herman
