Big Times at Hallowe'en Frolic

Conviviality unrestrained will prevail in Morgan Hill Friday night when the annual Hallowe'en Frolic given by the Friendly Inn Association will be held in the community house, The Friendly Inn.

This is one event of the year in which the entire community participates. Morgan Hill is proud of its community house. It is owned and sustained by popular subscription. Every citizen takes personal pride in the institution, and by his presence at and contribution to the success of the Hallowe'en Frolic identifies himself with the enterprise.

The frolic will open with a short program of music, a comedy skit and speaking. This will be followed by a grand masquerade contest. Very attractive prizes will be awarded to the lady and gentleman most attractively attired, the most comical costume and to the child with the prettiest outfit. Door prizes also will be awarded.

Roasts for the enjoyment of the guests will include cider and doughnuts, coffee and sandwiches, etc., and the principal feature being food, so necessary for a Hallowe'en party. Tables will adjust to be provided for the guests who do not care to participate in the dance which will continue until midnight.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW

The next meeting of the Morgan Hill Flower Show Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Vergin, on El Toro avenue, the afternoon of Tuesday, November 3, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

The club is making arrangements to hold its annual Fall Flower Show at the Friendly Inn on Thursday, November 5. Flower exhibits are invited from all who will be willing to help in making the show a success. All exhibits should be in the hall and arranged before noon of the day set for the show, so that the judges may make the awards.
Prizes will be given for the best arranged baskets, in charge of the forthcoming show are Messames Fred Nelson, Will Hatch,

They were turned over to Officer Shels who locked them up in the new calaboose and went out to telephone about his catch. When the officer went back to the jail to question the lads further, he discovered that they had "flown the coop." It appears that the lack to the cell door, for the convenience of the prisoners, no doubt, had been as put on that the boys had no difficulty in taking out some screws and gaining their freedom.

The lads, it appears, are of the bad sort. Officer Shels received information Wednesday that they had been captured in San Francisco but only after a running gun
