Subject: RE: EPA Meeting

It will be me and Charlotte Skidmore (AHAM's Sr. Director of Environmental Policy). We will be discussing the HFC court ruling (attached) and how it impacts the appliance industry. We represent manufacturers of refrigerators/freezers, room air conditioners, portable air conditioners, and dehumidifier, which all use refrigerants. EPA's SNAP program regulates the use of refrigerants and was the topic of the court ruling. Do you need more detail than that?
