

$1,000 GOWN FOR SHOW

Designed especially for San Diego is this gold lame evening costume worn by Miss Elizabeth Woodworth, a record-setter of a fashion show to be given in Mission Valley Center Fiesta Court. Sponsored by the center and Colonial Corporation of America, the show opens tomorrow at 7 p.m. Thursday at 3 p.m. and Friday at 7 p.m. Besides this, seven other gold fabric gowns have been designed just for the show by leading California fashion experts. They are not for sale—only for show. Prices run about $1,000 each. Nearer the price range of most women will be exotic swim suits, play and day wear and sports wear. They'll be modeled by San Diego's prettiest contenders for title of "Miss San Diego."

no tail lights. He said driver sped away, disregarding red and siren of the pursuing officer. He said stop for stop signs and fatally at Toomy and Weaver streets in Hocanto, lost control and hit an embankment.

The officer booked the driver, Clarence P. Wimberly Jr., 19, of 6661 Jason St., unemployed, on felony charges of auto theft, reckless driving, hit-run driving and driving without a license.

The passenger, identified by Rio Linda High School students as Edgar Allen Poe, was charged with being a minor in possession of liquor and drunk and disorderly.

New Universities Set

LONDON, May 20 (UP)—The government says four new universities will be established in Britain at Canterbury, Coventry and at another site not yet decided.
