Aurelia,

Thanks for sitting down with me today. Feel free to reach out on anything that I can be helpful with.

Below are the two follow ups that you asked for. Rick DeLappe was the manager of the rec.gov contracting process. He was an NPS employee detailed to the Forest Service. His contact info is below. Below that is the link to the Washington Post article about the investigation into Booz Allen Hamilton's billing of the government. I know that the House Natural Resources committee is considering looking into whether these. Illini problems also apply to the recreation.gov contract.

Have a fun trip and I'll try and find some time to have Chris Maloof with Active visit with you when he is in DC.

Bill
