

1           A     I believe that is when it was. It is 2     vague.

3           Q     Since your father's death, what do you miss 4     most about your father?

5           A     I miss him talking to me. I miss him
6     guiding me in terms of finances and decimals. I miss
7     his guidance in terms of making sure I make the right
8     decisions with regard to my career. I miss him going 9     out to concerts and sharing things and having a 10    family.

11                   I miss him sitting at the Thanksgiving
12    dinner where he sits. I miss him talking about what 13    the minister talked about at church.

14                   I miss him and my mother together sharing a 15    life, and I miss him talking about all of the things
16    we were going to do, talking about building my house
17    and his house and he is not there to do that, take 18    care of stuff.

19           Q     Thank you, Dr. Wood.

20                   MS. HINES: I have no further questions.

21                   THE COURT: We will have cross-examination
