Subject: I'm a Bloomberg science columnist in need of information on Scott Pruitt's proposal regarding transparency in EPA data

Hi there. My name is Faye Flam and I'm a science journalist with a regular column in Bloomberg View. I'm working on a column this week about Scott Pruitt's new proposal to ensure transparency in the data EPA uses:

<https://www.scientificamerican.com/article/pruitt-expected-to-limit-science-used-to-make-epa-pollution-rules/>

Is this proposal written down somewhere? I'd very much appreciate it if you could help me find it, or let me know approximately when it will be available.

Thanks,

Faye Flam

Columnist, Bloomberg View
