RE : Deposition exhibits

The list of documents that have been designated by plaintiff as exhibits currently ends with the number 3147. The procedure that this office has utilized in preparation for depositions has been to assign an exhibit number to any new document not already designated as an exhibit, have it bates numbered with Nevada Power's numbers, and enter identifying information on the exhibit list. The court reporters have been asked to include Plaintiff's Exhibit No. "____" on the list of exhibits included in the transcripts, regardless of what number he/she may have used as designation for that particular deposition.

Any documents introduced by defendants during depositions that are not already designated as one of our exhibits have also been added to plaintiff's list.

In the past, we have given the attorney taking the deposition a range of numbers and blank exhibit stickers for designating new plaintiff exhibits in the deposition. (For this reason, there are gaps of unused numbers throughout the exhibit list.)

The procedure for updating the exhibit list on the system will follow.
