Stuart -

Yes, excellent idea! Michael Bird & I developed Monday's BzTF meeting agenda (Feb 20th, 12-5pm) to cover "research" items from 1-3pm, and "advocacy" topics from 3-5pm. I will circulate the final draft agenda a little later today, but we intend Coalition partners to be fully included from 3-5pm.

Advocacy Agenda:

- * API's budget & activities from 2005-06
- * John Wagner's legal review of "Coalition structure"

- * Conclude with 2007 advocacy plans / leveraged funding.
- o how best to respond to articles?
- o including those emerging from the Shanghai Health Study.

Dial-In

- * Date: Monday 20 Feb 2006
- * Time: 1:00pm EST (Noon Central, 10:00am Pacific)
- * Phone: 770-765-9147 (toll free: 866-443-0059)
- * PIN Code: 202-682-8473# (Bruce's phone number)

Best Regards - Bruce.

All:

For your information, the API Benzene Task Force is meeting the afternoon of Monday February 20th. This would seem to be an opportunity to revisit the benzene coalition idea. I would ask Michael and Bruce to add this as an agenda items and have a call in session with interested partners from the chemical industry.

Thanks

Stuart Cagen
