| | |
|---|---|
| Canadian Johns-ManvilleAsbestos, Quebec | 1967 - 1984 |
| National Gypsum CompanyCleveland, Ohio | 1972 |
| C.L. Zimmerman Company3655 Central ParkwayCincinnati, Ohio | 1972 - 1977 |
| Union Insulating CompanyParkersburg, West Virginia | 1976 |
| Chrysler Chemical DivisionTrenton, Michigan | 1978 |

Chrysotile for Extruded Clutch Bands:

Asbestos Corporation, Ltd.

Johns-Manville

Clutch Plates and Bands for Automatic Transmissions:

The suppliers of plates since 1964 have been Raymark and Spring-Brummer Division of Borg-Warner Corporation. The suppliers of bands since 1964 have been Spring-Brummer Division or Borg-Warner Corporation and D.A.B Industries. Suppliers of clutch plates are Sheepbridge, Raybestos, Manhattan, Raymark, S.K.Wellman, Thermoset, Borg Warner, and Delco Moraine. Further delineation of dates is not possible without a search that would take an estimated 100 man-hours.

Clutch Plates for Manual Transmissions:

Suppliers of facings were (dates are approximate):

| | |
|---|---|
| Raymark Industrial DivisionSouthfield, Michigan | 1965 - 1985 |
| H.K. PorterTroy, Michigan | 1965 - 1971 |