Dear EPRI Seminar Speakers and Participants,

Thank you all for joining us last week for the 36th Annual EPRI Seminar on Fuels, Power Markets and Resource Planning. We hope you enjoyed the seminar and found the presentations and discussion to be interesting and provocative.

Attached you'll find PDF copies of the speaker presentations. Because of the size of these presentations and the limitations on some of your email systems, I'm sending this out in two separate emails with half the presentations attached to each email.

If you have any questions or feedback about this year's seminar, please contact me.

Best regards,
Adam
