

PROPOSED BEVERAGE CONTAINER REGULATION

PART I: DEFINITIONS

- 101 "Beverage" is beer, ale, other malt beverages, soda water, and carbonated soft drinks in liquid form intended for human consumption.
- 102 "Beverage container" is an individual, separate, sealed bottle, can, jar or carton made of metal, glass, plastic, or other material or combinations of such materials, containing a beverage for consumption or use off the premises on which it is sold or offered for sale.
- 103 "Consumer" is every person who purchases a beverage in a beverage container for use or consumption.
- 104 "Dealer" is every person who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to consumers.
- 105 "Person" is any individual, partnership, co-partnership, firm, company, corporation, association, joint stock company, trust, estate, political subdivision, state agency, or any other legal entity, or their legal representative, agent or assigns.
- 106 "Use or consumption" includes, but is not limited to, the exercise of any right or power over a beverage incident to the ownership thereof, other than the sale or the keeping or retention of a beverage for the purposes of sale.

PART II: DEPOSIT

- 201 Every sale and every offer for sale of a beverage in a beverage container by a dealer to a consumer in Illinois shall be subject to deposit by the consumer of not less than five cents with the dealer.
- 202 No person shall sell or offer for sale beverages in beverage containers to a consumer unless he collects the deposit required by section 201, and undertakes to return the full amount of such deposits upon return to him of the beverage container sold by him.
