Fascists, Irate Slap Toscanini

BOLOGNA, Italy, May 15 (UP).—Arturo Toscanini, conductor of the New York philharmonic symphony orchestra, nursed slight bruises and injured feelings today, inflicted when he was punched and slapped by fascist youths last night after refusing to open a concert by playing the royal anthem and the fascist hymn.

The disharmonious note came when Toscanini's artistic temperament clashed with the patriotism of the fascists. They slapped him, followed him to his hotel when he rushed out of the concert hall and demanded he leave town.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 15.—The district court hearing on the city's suit to enjoin C. C. Julian from drilling an oil well because he had not posted the required drilling bond, was postponed until May 23 today.

Postponement was granted after Julian attorneys waited throughout the morning for a judge to hear the case.
