Today on Climate Beat . . .

. . . we reported on former Obama administration officials' optimism on climate change and clean energy despite Trump administration efforts.

Speaking of the Trump administration, our daily news round up examined reports that officials may remain in the agreement "under the right conditions.

And we went to court, where EPA is asking to continue to hold in abeyance a case that challenges the agency's first-time rule requiring trailers to take steps to cut greenhouse gas emissions.
