Hi team! I appreciate the time on Thursday. Will there be any staff in the meeting with the Secretary?

Hi! Anything moving yet on this meeting request? The clock is ticking since they will be in town only on Wednesday and Thursday morning of this week. Thanks

Hey Kristen, it's Kyle Nevins. I just left you a VM about the Exxon meeting to see if you think that date might work. I know y'all have a ton going on and hate to press. They just need to make a call today about whether to bring him in or not. Thank you so much!

Hey Kyle, sorry for the delay but wanted to follow up with you. I haven't had a chance to tag up with Wynn on this but I knew yall were talking. Does a meeting on Thursday still work?

Yes, it still works for us!

Ideally before 2:30pm

Exxon's CEO now has to reschedule his trip. I'm not sure the reason, though I imagine the weather is playing a part in it. After all y'all have done I'm so sorry to cancel this. But I truly appreciate all of your help!

No problem! Next time he is in DC we'll definitely reschedule!

Hi Wynn and Kristen, I'm adding Jamie Wall to this chain as she'll be the point of contact for Thursday's meeting with ExxonMobil. Jamie leads their government affairs office in DC. I will be out of town and unable to attend the meeting, so she will be your best POC. I'm still available if anything comes up in the interim. Thanks again!
