

Ethanolamines/Glycol Ethers In Plant Training (IPT)

Section Number :6
Issue Number :1.2
Origination Date :10-03-91 Author: Bryan Abadie
Revision Date :02-22-96
Section Test :8

Lab Familiarization Area Hazards

1.0 Purpose:

1.1 To familiarize you with the hazards and protective measures used to reduce those hazards within the loading area.

2.0 Resources:

2.1 Safety supervisor, other experienced personnel, industrial hygiene manual and contact.

3.0 Required level of performance:

3.1 100% complete and correct.

4.0 Objectives:

1. Describe the hazards associate with strapping storage tanks.
2. Describe the hazards associated with removing pigs from pig traps.
3. State what special piece of safety equipment is required in addition to basic safety equipment when working on a barge or ship.
4. Explain what safety devices are available to you in the loading areas.
5. State the maximum nitrogen pressure that should be used when blowing a pig through a marine line to the dock.

6. State the hazards associated with standing over the opening of a tank car, tank truck, barge , drum lance, or ship holes.
7. State what special safety equipment is required when working in the drumming building.
8. State the hazards associated with disconnecting flex hoses.
9. State the precautions that should be taken when entering ship and barge tanks.
10. Describe the hazards associated with use of fork trucks and containers.
11. Describe the hazards associated with pulling bullet trailers to the old dock.

Revisions:

No. 1	07-12-93	Yearly Review
No. 2	12-12-94	Yearly Review
	12-13-95	Yearly Review, no changes
	02-22-96	Yearly Review, no changes