

Nuesslein Wins World's Championship at International Matches in Rome

"LARRY" NUESSELEIN, of Washington, D. C., is the new holder of the world's championship for .22 rifle shooting. Nuesslein became the 1927 champion by winning the .22 caliber match at the International Rifle Matches held at Rome, Italy. Like previous world's champions, he pinned his faith to U. S. .22 N. R. A.'s. He scored 394x400.

Take a tip from Nuesslein and other champions. Shoot U. S. .22 N. R. A.'s if you want the last word in accuracy.

Test out these ultra-accurate .22's against the field. Your scores will tell you why .22 N. R. A.'s are the choice of champions.
