Gov. Scott Reappoints Two to Board of Clinical Social Work, Marriage and Family Therapy, and Mental Health Counseling

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the reappointment of Jamie Buller and Susan Gillespy to the Board of Clinical Social Work, Marriage and Family Therapy, and Mental Health Counseling.

Jamie Buller, 60, of Jacksonville, is the director of advance care planning at Community Hospice and Palliative Care. Buller received her master's in social work from Florida State University. She is reappointed for a term beginning October 20, 2017, and ending October 31, 2020.

Susan Gillespy, 61, of Atlantic Beach, is a self-employed marriage and family therapist. Gillespy received her master's degree from the University of North Florida. She is reappointed for a term beginning October 20, 2017, and ending October 31, 2020.

These appointments are subject to confirmation by the Florida Senate.
