

From: Governor's Press Office [Governor'sPressOffice@eog.myflorida.com]
Sent: 11/20/2017 10:51:08 PM
Subject: Gov. Scott Reappoints Three to Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2017

CONTACT: GOVERNOR'S PRESS OFFICE

(850) 717-9282

media@eog.myflorida.com

Gov. Scott Reappoints Three to Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, Governor Rick Scott announced the reappointment of three to the Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services.

Keenan Knopke, 67, of Temple Terrace, is the president of Curlew Hills Memory Gardens, Inc. He is reappointed for a term beginning November 20, 2017, and ending September 30, 2021.

Jody Brandenburg, 74, of Jacksonville, is the president of Hardage-Giddens Funeral Homes and Cemeteries. He is reappointed for a term beginning November 20, 2017, and ending September 30, 2021.

Lewis Hall, 54, of Lakeland, is the president of Gentry-Morrison Funeral Homes in Serenity Gardens. He is reappointed for a term beginning November 20, 2017, and ending September 30, 2021.

These appointments are subject to Senate confirmation.

###