FULLER PAINT STORES
W. P. FULLER & CO.

Candidates Steven P. Young and Ellis Crane Jr., "that the State can give no one anything that it hasn't taken away from someone else. The State budget today is 400 percent higher than it was 10 years ago. It is out of reason and there is a lot of waste.

CLOTH COST CITED

"I'll point out ones instance. Percale, which you women know is a fabric, costs the State more to buy by the yard than it costs made up into dresses. It seems the State has to buy it through certain channels." He explained later that the percale purchase deal came up while he was a member of the State Board of Prison Directors, a post he left in January.

"Most every law is put on the books to give someone a special privilege," Cramer said. "It would be better to repeal some we have than to get more."

Young and Crane also spoke. Young made a strong pitch for benefits for widows of G.I.'s killed in the war. Crane criticized his Republican opponent, Assemblyman Howard K. Cramer, charging Cramer's vote has been on the side of corporate and absentee farmers in the big Central Valley area.

CANDIDATES SPEAK

Also speaking were John H. Morse, who wants to be Second District supervisor; Municipal Judge A. F. Molina, candidate for the Superior Court; Ned Holmes, candidate for county clerk, and Ralph B. Elm, candidate for county tax collector.

In a business session after the public meeting, the League elected Mrs. Walter Barnes, president; Miss Louise Darby, first vice president; Mrs. Byron Teachout, second vice president; Mrs. C. L. Hendrickson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. G. R. Welty, treasurer.

Lawyers Ballot

Lawyers of San Diego yesterday began voting on their choice between Superior Judge William A. Glen and Municipal Judge A. F. Molina, candidates for the office now held by Glen.

Bonsall Noon, chairman of the Bar Association Plebiscite Committee, said more than 300 ballots had been sent to lawyers throughout the County and that returns already were coming in. The ballots will be counted Wednesday at 3 p.m. in his office.

Letters sent out with the ballots asked that the lawyers make their choice on the basis of the ability, education and integrity of the candidates.

Defense Speedup Urged

OAKLAND, April 15 (AP)—Mark Edwin Andrews, assistant secretary of the Navy, tonight called for teamwork among all phases of American economy to provide, if need be, a quick changeover to wartime production.
