TILOCK HURRICANE

STATEMENT

Tilo Roofing Company, Inc., a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, located at 347 Longbrook Avenue, in the county of Fairfield, town of Stratford, and State of Connecticut, and doing business at 347 Longbrook Avenue, Stratford, Connecticut, has adopted and is using the trade-mark shown in the accompanying drawing, for ROOFING MATERIALS—NAMESLY, SHINGLES OF THE INTERLOCKING TYPE, NORMALLY FLEXIBLE AND PRODUCED FROM A COMPOSITION OF ROOFING MATERIALS—in Class 12, Construction materials, and presents herewith five specimens showing the trade-mark as actually used in connection with such goods, the trade-mark being applied to the goods by stamping; outlining; painting; stencilling or employing decalcomania upon the goods, or upon containers holding the goods; or by printing or impressing the mark on labels or in tags which may be attached to the goods or to the containers therefor; or in applying the mark in any other manner customary to the trade, and requests that the same be registered in the United States Patent Office on the Principal Register in accordance with section 2(f) of the act of July 5, 1946 as to "Tilock."

The trade-mark was first used on April 15, 1945, and first used in commerce among the several States which may lawfully be regulated by Congress on April 15, 1945.

Applicant claims ownership of Registration 367,735.

The composite trade-mark as shown was first used April 15, 1945; the name "Tilock" was first used by applicant on December 6, 1922; and the composite mark was first used in commerce among the several States which may be regulated by Congress on April 15, 1945. The name "Tilock" of the mark shown herein is claimed to have become distinctive of applicant's goods in commerce which may lawfully be regulated by Congress through substantially exclusive and continuous use thereof as a mark by applicant and in commerce among the several States for the five years next preceding the date of the filing of the application.
