Navy Heroes: Five Flyers Will Receive Medals Today

Five Navy flyers will receive the Navy Cross in ceremonies at Alameda Naval Air Base today.

Rear Admiral William K. Harrill will make the presentations. Two of the flyers are to receive Gold Stars in lieu of second Navy Crosses, and a third will be awarded the Navy's Air Medal in addition.

Receiving the awards will be:

Lieutenant Commander W. C. Short of New York, commander of a bombing squadron which sank one Japanese carrier and sank or severely damaged another carrier and at least eight other Jap vessels in Tulagi and Coral sea engagements from May 4 to 8.

Lieutenant Joe R. Penland of North Carolina, who distinguished himself for extraordinary heroism against Jap forces in the Battle of Midway.

Lieutenant Harlan R. Dickson of Ohio, pilot of a dive bomber in Tulagi harbor May 4, and against Jap forces in the Coral sea battle May 8.

Ensign Frank R. McDonald, 1942 Annapolis graduate who piloted a dive bomber in the face of fierce fighter opposition and enemy anti-aircraft fire in the Coral sea action of May 7, attacking an aircraft carrier.

Chief Aviation Pilot Melvin H. Georgius, who piloted a Navy torpedo plane in the Coral sea battle May 7, scoring a hit on a Japanese carrier in spite of heavy fighter opposition and anti-aircraft fire.

Lieutenant Commander Short and Lieutenant Dickson are to receive the Navy Cross with Gold Star, and Lieutenant Penland will receive the Navy Cross and Air Medal.

Moscow Midnight

MOSCOW, Wednesday, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Soviet midnight communique:

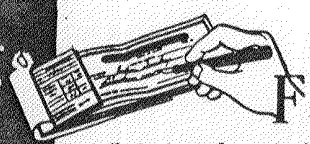

During October 27 our troops fought the enemy in the area of Stalingrad and northeast of Tuapse. No changes took place on other fronts.

In the area of Stalingrad our men engaged enemy infantry and tanks which had renewed the offensive in the area of a workers' settlement and factories. The Germans launched one attack after another, striving to break the defenders. Our men repulsed the attacks.

In the area of a factory over 900 Germans were wiped out. Eleven tanks were destroyed.

In some sectors northwest of Stalingrad fighting continued. Our artillery was active. The fire of one unit destroyed three tanks and wiped out about one company of enemy infantry. Another battery destroyed four German tanks and 23 fortified points. In another
