Governor Scott Recognizes Jon Bucci with Young Entrepreneur Award

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, during a meeting of the Florida Cabinet, Governor Rick Scott recognized Jon Bucci, 23, with the Governor's Young Entrepreneur Award. Bucci is the founder and CEO of Apex Property Restoration, a carpentry, repair, and assembly service company operating in Southwest Florida. Apex Property Restoration was founded in 2012 and currently employs 13 Floridians. Bucci is also co-founder of Inari Industries, a technology startup company and soon to be opening Bucci studios, a health and day spa.

Governor Scott said, "I'm proud to present Jon with the Young Entrepreneur Award today. It's great to see a young entrepreneur follow his dream of building a business here in Florida. His determination and hard work will continue to lead him and his business to future success."

Founder and CEO of Apex Property Restoration Jon Bucci said, "I'm honored to be recognized by Governor Scott with the Young Entrepreneur Award today. Apex Property Restoration strives to provide our clients with the best carpentry, repair, and assembly services in the Naples and Fort Myers areas. I'm proud of my team and the success we have seen and I'm grateful for the support the community has shown us."
