YOUR REF.

9th April, 1968.

Dear Dr. Kehoe,

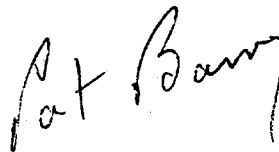

I enclose my interpretation of your meeting with the Swedish Health Authorities in Stockholm, together with a somewhat briefer and very limited analysis of our luncheon meeting in Bonn.

I do hope that you had a trouble-free trip back to the United States, and that on your arrival back in Cincinnati you found Mrs. Kehoe to be in not too bad a shape.

We enjoyed very much your visit to us here at Ellesmere Port, and I personally enjoyed being with you on your round of talks. I am more than grateful to you for all that you did for us during the course of your trip over here.

Anne sends her kindest regards to you both. We both hope that Mrs. Kehoe will soon be fit and well again.

Yours sincerely,

(P.S.I. Barry)
