Good morning Hayly,

I'm writing to let you know that The Heartland Institute has brought on board a new president, former Wisconsin state legislator Frank Lasée. Frank will be visiting DC several times in the next few months and I wanted to see if Administrator Wheeler would be available for any of these dates to make introductions and discuss your latest policy priorities, please advise as to next steps. Should I submit an event request form as I did last time?

Hi Ryan,

On another topic, we had discussed the possibility of Administrator Wheeler being the keynote at our upcoming climate and energy conference in Washington DC. You all mentioned his plans to attend the upcoming G-20 and G-7 meetings this summer, and we were shooting for a June or July timeframe if possible. Please advise as to the Administrator's availability.

Best regards,
Aaron

This is much appreciated. On Friday, the subcommittee was able to announce a minority party witness for the second panel. Apparently even though there are five majority witnesses, the Republicans are not able to have more than one minority party witness for the second panel. However, it's very usual for additional written testimony to be submitted for the record for the hearing transcript. We have asked that additional written testimony at least be able to be included. That is something we are waiting to hear back on.

Hi Ryan,

As discussed at Thursday's meeting, we have found a state legislator who is interested in serving as witness at the Tuesday hearing on EPA enforcement. Please let me introduce you by email State Rep. Jessica Unruh (R-ND-33). We look forward to hearing from you on next steps.
