My New "Dutch Boy" Blended Paint

R for Keeping
Homes Young
(Apply externally)

Now Dr. "Dutch Boy," that famous Home specialist, brings out a newly blended tonic for tired, run-down houses... the new "Dutch Boy" Blended Paint.

A fountain of youth for aging homes, it pours forth in refreshing, modern Colors, as well as a dazzling, Bright White.

3 Blends Protect Beauty 3 Ways...

Why three blends? Because house paint has to do three different jobs. And blending gives three different kinds of paint, each compounded to do its job right. 1. Bright White. 2. Crisp, sparkling Tints. 3. Gay, glossy Sash and Trim Colors.

Yes, in colors as in white, "Dutch Boy" is Good Paint's Other Name. No higher quality paint has ever earned the "Dutch Boy's" dependable label. It is backed by over 30 years of continuous outdoor paint tests—the longest research project of its kind.

So, for homes that are losing their glow of youth — there's nothing like Dr. "Dutch Boy's" Blended Paint prescription. (To be applied externally.)
