Am I correct that you really don't have an independent recollection of what exactly went on at that time?

A I don't understand your question.

Q Throughout the course of your testimony I occasionally see you looking down and reading something.

What are you reading down there?

A I have a summary of events as they occurred over a period of time 16 years ago.

Q All right. So it is really difficult for you to remember without your notes what really happened; am I correct?

A No. It is not difficult for me to remember. They are just there to reassure should my memory slip.

Q When were you notified that you may have to testify in this case?

A I don't remember the exact date. I think it was sometime in early March.

Q All right. March of --
