

burdensome. Subject to and without waiving these objections, invoices relating to sales of Abex's asbestos-containing automotive friction products are on file for a period beginning sometime in 1976 to 1987 only. These invoices, which may reflect sales of Abex's asbestos-containing as well as non-asbestos-containing automotive friction products, number well in excess of half a million. Such invoices are arranged, for the most part, numerically and chronologically by year and not by customer, product or state. These invoices can be made available for inspection and copying upon receipt of an appropriate document request.

10. Were any patents or trademarks ever applied for or granted with regard to any product(s) listed in interrogatory 6? If so, for each such product state:

- (a) The number of each patent;
- (b) The date(s) issued and to whom issued;
- (c) The name of each patent application that is presently pending.

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10: Abex objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad, burdensome, lacks relevance to this case and is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

11. Identify each business entity from whom you have received raw asbestos if you are not a miner or distributor of mineral or raw asbestos during the period of plaintiff's or decedent's employ, including:

- (a) name of and address of supplier;
- (b) the date(s);
- (c) amount;
