

Date of death: January 29, 1988

John H. Warren, World War II vet

John H. Warren, 64, of 40 Midway St., Indian Orchard section of Springfield, an employee for 40 years of the Monsanto Co., died Friday in Baystate Medical Center.

Born in Springfield, he lived in Longmeadow before moving to Indian Orchard 40 years ago.

He was a World War II Army veteran, serving in the tank division in the China-Burma-India Theater.

He leaves his wife of 40 years, the former Alice Eaton; two sons, John D. of Springfield and Daniel of Indian Orchard; five brothers, Fred M., Francis, Charles and Earl, all of Longmeadow, and Carl of Feeding Hills section of Agawam; a sister, DeEtte Harrahy of North Windham, Conn., a grandchild and several nieces and nephews.

A private funeral and burial will be at the convenience of the family. Byron's State Street Funeral Home is in charge. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.