

that it can be helped. "I know the water is not safe," says Dr. Warren L. Buehler, president of the California Medical Association, speaking at his 10,000-member annual meeting. "Concentrate efforts to further implement the controls and safeguards which have resulted in the improved quality of our food."

Make Suggestions

In discussing the problem during a regular session of the AMA's annual meeting, Buehler urged physicians to discuss the problem with their patients.
