Subject: Invitation to Present at AAPCA's Spring Meeting, April 4 - 6 in Lexington, KY
Administrator Pruitt Invite - AAPCA 2018 Spring Meeting.pdf

Administrator Pruitt,

On behalf of the Association of Air Pollution Control Agencies (AAPCA), thank you for the recent opportunities to engage with U.S. EPA and provide feedback on critical Clean Air Act issues. AAPCA is a consensus-driven organization focused on assisting state and local air quality agencies and personnel with implementation and technical issues associated with the federal Clean Air Act. The Association represents more than 40 state and local air agencies, and senior officials from 20 state environmental agencies currently sit on AAPCA's Board of Directors. AAPCA is based in Lexington, Kentucky as an affiliated association of The Council of State Governments (CSG).

We are writing to invite you to attend and present at AAPCA's 2018 Spring Meeting, which will be held in Lexington, Kentucky from April 4 – 6. More information is available in the enclosed invitation from 2018 AAPCA President Stuart Spencer, Associate Director of the Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality, and 2017 AAPCA President Sean Alteri, Director of the Kentucky Division for Air Quality. Regular attendance by senior U.S. EPA officials at Association meetings has been greatly valued by our membership. AAPCA's 2017 Fall Business Meeting included participation from over 150 attendees, including senior air officials from more than 30 state and local environmental agencies. Participants also included nearly 40 U.S. EPA staff from the Offices of Air and Radiation, Research and Development, Inspector General, and Enforcement and Compliance Assurance, as well as several EPA regions. Our members would be especially interested in hearing from you and your staff about recent and forthcoming Clean Air Act issues, cooperative federalism, and opportunities to work together on issues like NAAQS nonattainment, interstate transport, air toxics, and resource priorities.

Please let me know if you have any questions about AAPCA's 2018 Spring Meeting, or if we can serve as a resource on any Clean Air Act issues in the future.

Thanks so much for your consideration, and we look forward to seeing you in Lexington!

AAPCA  ASSOCIATION OF AIR POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCIES
2018 SPRING MEETING
April 4–6 | Hilton Lexington/Downtown | Lexington, Kentucky

November 15, 2017

Administrator Scott Pruitt
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
William Jefferson Clinton Building
1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W.
Washington, DC 20460

Dear Administrator Pruitt,

On behalf of the Association of Air Pollution Control Agencies (AAPCA), we would like to invite you to attend and speak at AAPCA's 2018 Spring Meeting, which will be held at the Hilton Lexington/Downtown in Lexington, Kentucky from April 4 – 6, 2018. AAPCA is a consensus-driven organization representing state and local air agencies on technical Clean Air Act issues. Regular attendance by senior U.S. EPA officials at previous Association meetings has been greatly valued by our membership.

More information on AAPCA's Spring Meeting will be available shortly on our website (www.cleanairact.org). On April 6, 2018, the meeting is closed to the press and programming is limited to federal, state, and local agency personnel and their multijurisdictional organizations (with non-governmental attendees participating in the first two days). AAPCA's 2017 Fall Business Meeting included participation from more than 150 attendees, including senior officials from approximately 30 state and local air agencies, as well as nearly 40 staff from U.S. EPA.

Thank you for your consideration of our request. If your schedule permits, AAPCA's members look forward to seeing you in Lexington and discussing opportunities to work together on Clean Air Act issues.

Sincerely,

Stuart Spencer
Associate Director
Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality
2018 President, AAPCA

Sean Alteri
Director
Kentucky Division for Air Quality
2017 President, AAPCA
