Your Honor, the vials from the first trial in 1992 is upstairs on the 4th floor in the appeal of that case.

THE COURT: It has never left this courtroom.

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Your Honor, it was put in evidence in Judge Levin's courtroom.

THE COURT: Is there another one?

MR. IGNATOWSKI: It is my understanding that we had gotten permission to have this vial, I believe, removed and -- from the evidence in the previous trial and used in this, but I will check that to be sure.

THE COURT: It was my understanding that that was the case.

MR. IGNATOWSKI: Yes. That is my understanding.

THE COURT: That is why it has stayed in here pending any request by the Appellate Court for that vial.

The objection is overruled.

MS. TOSTANOSKI: Thank you, Your Honor.
