Millan,

I have a LSSGB (Lean Six Sigma Green Belt) classroom training starting on Nov 13th at Washington, DC. This is a 2-day course (November 13, 14) and I have a few seats still available. Would you or anyone in your contacts be willing to participate? I can provide a discounted fee of $1299 if so.

If this is too short a notice, you can also opt for the December dates - 11, 12 Dec'17.

Best,
Jamie
