

1 MR. WILLIAMS: Not my case, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Oh, Mr. McGowan.

3 MR. MCGOWAN: Thank you.

4 Ladies and gentlemen, good afternoon.

5 THE JURY: Good afternoon.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. MCGOWAN:

8 Q Sir, good afternoon. My name is Tim

9 McGowan, and I have some questions for you.

10 I am going to go back before the Sinai

11 Hospital that you spoke about.

12 You told the jury that you first started

13 working with Mr. Vandergucht back in 1949?

14 A Yes, I did.

15 Q He was a plasterer back then?

16 A Yes.

17 Q So were you?

18 A I was a plasterer apprentice.

19 Q What was he at that time?

20 A He was a journeyman plasterer.

21 Q So he had a few more years experience than
