Hi, Carol--

I just spoke to Rex Carr. He says he's sure that, if he said Suskind took his name off the Zack/Gaffey study, he had documentation saying that, but he cannot remember what it might have been. He said; probably a letter from Suskind. He offered to let me go through his Kemner materials, which he has stored in a warehouse without heat or electricity, so "Bring a flashlight," he said. He was being pleasant, but not terribly optimistic.

He asked me what judge we had; I said Hamilton and he groaned and said, "You're in trouble with that one. She's strictly on the side of the big boys like Monsanto."

Oh, well... The kind of talent and persistence I've got on MY side will make up for the judge.

Bye for now,
