RE: INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE COMMITTEE MEETING

A special luncheon meeting of the Davenport Works Industrial Hygiene Committee was held in the small dining room of the Main Cafeteria April 5, 1965.

Attending the meeting were the following members: Messrs. B. D. Kent, C. L. Huey, J. T. Hobbs, Jr., W. C. Harvey, J. H. Lowry, G. J. Myers, Ron Small and Dr. A. W. Shafer.

Joining us for this meeting were Dr. L. V. Cralley, Pittsburgh, Mr. George Farrah, ARL, and a group of University of Iowa students from the Department of Preventative Medicine and Environmental Health. The students attending were: Darryl Ebert, Robert Frederick, Raymond Kary, Harrison Streeter and Jon Swanson. They were accompanied by Associate Professor Clyde M. Berry.

Welcoming remarks were made by Chairman Harvey who introduced Dr. Cralley to the members and guests. Dr. Cralley presented an overall picture of Alcoa's Industrial Hygiene Program to the group.

Chairman Harvey and George Myers reviewed the high lights of Davenport's 1964 Industrial Hygiene problems and their solutions after which Mr. Farrah demonstrated the new vortex man cooling units developed jointly by ARL and Mine Safety Appliance Company.

The meeting adjourned at 2:00 p.m.
