Inn to partake of a delicious supper. The lobby and auditorium of the Inn were beautifully decorated in autumn colors, grape leaves, chrysanthemums and lanterns being the chief decorations. Following the supper, dancing and cards were the main attractions of the evening's entertainment.

Miss Kirby Entertains.

Miss Eleanor Kirby was the charming hostess to a coterie of young folks Saturday evening, when she entertained fifty guests, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kirby, near Madrone. Newbold's orchestra furnished music for dancing, which was indulged in until midnight, after which a supper was served in the garage which had been profusely decorated in Hallowe'en colors consisting of corn stalks, jack-o-lanterns and crepe paper.

Birthday Party for Twins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robinson entertained Sunday in honor of their twin daughters, Mary and Augusta, it being the 17th birthday anniversary of the girls. Games were enjoyed after which light refreshments were served to the guests, the following being invited: Mr. and Mrs. Leland Frame and daughter, Vernie, of Gilroy; Mrs. T. H. Sheldon, of San Martin; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, of San Jose, Elmer Weymouth, of Gilroy, and Eva Monkhouse, Virginia Horton, and Mabel and Howard Weichert, of Morgan Hill.

Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. J. B. Ogier, of Edenvale, was the gracious hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon at her home last Thursday. An elaborate luncheon was served at noon to the guests. Following all sat down to a fascinating game of bridge. Ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Ogier's hospitality included Mesdames C. O. Eden, Y. M. Eden, C. F. Barnes, A. C. Everett, Martha Holly, Lewis Britton, W. D. Miner, Frank Devoe, Ted Daniel, Fred Pullington and A. M. Kelley, also Mr. A. McKee and Mr. Lee Ogier, of San Jose; Mrs. W. Agnoler, of San Martin, and Mrs. C. F. Drewery and Mrs. Lorraine Betsinger, of Morgan Hill.

Out of Town Guests.

Mrs. A. C. Everett entertained out of town guests on Thursday of last week at a luncheon which was served by the hostess in her usual hospitable manner. Those to enjoy Mrs. Everett's home were Mrs. Vi Bracken, of San Francisco; Mrs. Berka, of Lodi; Mrs. Minnie Wheeler, of Redwood City and Mrs. L. H. Britton, of San Jose. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berka and son, of San Jose, joined the party in the afternoon. Bridge was enjoyed in the afternoon.
