ROS:

- S1 introduces himself;
- Tracey LeBeau WAPA's CEO and Administrator briefly introduces her senior team (no time for individual intros);
- S1 can highlight:
 - The importance of WAPA – alone it supplies power to over 700 customers and 40 million end users;
 - Thank WAPA for continuing their important transmission work – specifically the work they are doing in coordination with Tucson Electric on their 230kV line (we can also note we are still working on logistics to see if S1 could potentially come out for that ground breaking).
 - The importance of hydropower and its linkage to our EO on Unleashing American Energy
- S1 could close out the discussion by thanking WAPA leadership for all they are doing – I am also linking a great article if you can print for S1 on highlighting WAPA' incredible work – in just one area they serve: Valley City's Low Electric Rates: A Legacy at Risk | News Dakota
