

1 THE COURT CLERK: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Is there any left, sir?

3 MR. WILLIAMS: I will get it.

4 THE COURT: How is your back, sir?

5 THE WITNESS: Sore, but that is something
6 you have to live with.

7 THE COURT: Would this be of benefit?

8 Here. Let me give this to you.

9 (Whereupon, discussion off the record.)

10 BY MS. HINES:

11 Q Is that better, Mr. Anderson?

12 A Excellent.

13 Q You are still going to have to lean a little
14 forward to make sure you can be heard and speak loud.

15 I want to ask you questions regarding your
16 general knowledge of asbestos from your working with
17 asbestos friction products.

18 You were asked on direct examination
19 concerning what raw materials were in the asbestos
20 friction products beginning in the 1950s, and you said
21 that it was asbestos in the friction products.
