Dear George:- RE: OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

The book is most interesting and this was a very kind thought on your part.

Bill Fenhel was at home last Sunday. I will see him likely this afternoon. I understand he is leaving tomorrow for New York.

On the whole I believe he is satisfied and I have no doubt, from the angle of my people, his trip was indeed constructive. Your suggestion and his that a Province of Quebec representative should accompany him during his dust counts was a very happy one indeed.

I am endeavouring to make this Pittsburg trip (Industrial Air Hygiene Foundation).

Cordially,
Ivan Sabourin
