Watch Theft Admitted

Parolee, 20, Broke
Shop Window

Thomas L. Brown, 20, of 217
Winfield Street, a California Youth Authority parolee, confessed yesterday to the window smashing burglary of a jewelry shop at 2120 Irving Street last Saturday.

Inspectors John Keating and William Denser said Brown admitted to his parole officer that he had taken some watches and implicated a 17 year old boy and a third youth. The 17 year old was taken to the Youth Guidance Center.

The total loot was valued at about $600 instead of the previous of $3,000.

School Policy Survey Set

The 58 year old policy of semiannual promotions of students in San Francisco public schools will undergo scrutiny at a meeting next Wednesday evening at the Board of Education, 170 Fell Street.

The event, sponsored by the Public Education Society of San Francisco, will feature Dr.
C. W. Fawcett of the National Association of Manufacturers and Dr. A. J. Coladarc of Stanford University. It is open to the public.
