

II

RESERVE FOR BAD DEBTS
DECEMBER 31, 1943

|                                 | TOTAL        | ZINC OXIDE   | WHITE LEAD   | LEAD-in-OIL |
|---------------------------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|-------------|
| Balance November 30, 1943       | $ 45,000.03 | $ 30,005.34 | $ 10,502.19 | $ 4,492.50 |
| Less: Charge-off December 1943  |              |              |              |             |
| E. F. Carlson Paint Co. Chicago | 1.00         |              |              | 1.00        |
| Balance December 31, 1943       | $ 44,999.03 | $ 30,005.34 | $ 10,502.19 | $ 4,491.50 |

DETAIL OF CHARGE-OFFS to RESERVE FOR BAD DEBTS - YEAR 1943

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Stock | RECOVERY | LOSS     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|----------|----------|
| F. J. Bossong Port Jervis, N. Y.                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | LO    | $       | $ 70.14 |
| Sold for two years. Total sales $311.72. Bossong operated as a contractor. Although he took over an established business he was unable to operate successfully. Bankruptcy filed. No visible assets for dividends. Entire amount charged to Reserve. |       |          |          |
| Builders Hardware Shop Quincy, Mass.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | LO    |          | 139.00   |
| Sold two years. Total sales $339.75. Business started in 1941. Unable to secure necessary supplies to operate. No visible assets for dividend. Entire amount to Reserve.                                                                             |       |          |          |
| Edward C. Bunck, Inc. Chicago, Ill.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | LO    | 2.67     |          |
| Net loss charged to Reserve in 1942. Additional dividend 1-3/4% received.                                                                                                                                                                             |       |          |          |
| E. F. Carlson Paint Co. Chicago, Ill.                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | LO    | 49.72    |          |
| $1.00 left in Uncollectible Accounts in 1942 to cover any dividends. First and final 15% received.                                                                                                                                                   |       |          |          |
| H. J. Day Wppr. & Paint Co. Dunkirk, N. Y.                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | LO    | 23.58    |          |
| $1.00 left in Uncollectibles in 1942 to cover any dividends. First and final 11.144% received                                                                                                                                                        |       |          |          |
| Figatner Paint & Wppr. Co. Chicago, Ill.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | LO    | .81      |          |
| $1.00 left in Uncollectibles in 1942 to cover any dividends. Final dividend received. Total 22.15%                                                                                                                                                   |       |          |          |
| Irving S. Gloman & Co. Wilkes Barre, Pa.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | LO    |          |          |
| Sold for three years on C.O.D. basis. Total sales $414.18. Loss represents Uncollectible unearned discount. Bankruptcy filed.                                                                                                                        |       |          |          |

N14412

PNYC00007360

- III -

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | STOCK | RECOVERY   | 1939 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------------|-------------|
| Hachmeister-Lind Co.      Pittsburgh, Pa.Full amount charged to Reserve 1932-33.7% third dividend received 1943                                                                                                                                                                                       | WLOX     | $ 162.502.27 |             |
| Horper Paint Co.              Chicago, Ill.Sold five years. Total sales $942.03 wartimerestrictions on purchases. Sales below normal.Partners inducted in army. Settlement 37% accepted.Balance to reserve.                                                                              | LO           |                   | $ 53.22    |
| Leffler Paint & Supply Co., Marion, OhioSold for eight years. Total sales $3,625.91Dropping off of sales together with difficulty insecuring merchandise resulted in an assignment forbenefit of creditors. First and final dividend4% received. Balance charged to Reserve in 1943. | LO           |                   | 70.21       |
| McKinney Bros.              Pittsburgh, Pa.$1.00 left in Uncollectibles in 1942 to coverany dividends. No further dividends received.                                                                                                                                                            | LO           |                   | 1.00        |
| Marion Paint Co.              Indianapolis, Ind.Sold ten years. Total sales $5,440.44Receivership recovery 51%                                                                                                                                                                                   | WL           |                   | $2.35      |
| Martin Custom Made Tires Corp.      Salem, Ohio$99.00 Charged off 1942. No dividends forcreditors. Balance charged to Reserve in 1943                                                                                                                                                            | ZO           |                   | 1.00        |
| Modern Paint Store              Bridgeport, Conn.Sold three years. Total sales $807.14. Filedbankruptcy. First and final dividend 20% received.Balance to Reserve                                                                                                                            | LO           |                   | 1.15        |
| Mutual Paint Co.              St. Paul, Minn.Full amount charged to Reserve in 1942. Smalldividend received.                                                                                                                                                                                      | WL           | 18.24             |             |
| Rain-on Products Mfg. Co., Chicago, Io$1.00 left in Uncollectibles in 1942 to coverany dividends. First and final 43% received.                                                                                                                                                                  | LO           | 27.88             |             |
| Schwartz & Stenzler      Brooklyn, N. Y.Sold one year. Total sales $273.29. Voluntaryliquidation. 23.9651% paid. Balance to Reserve                                                                                                                                                              | LO           |                   | 1.15        |

PNYC00007361