correct?

A No, that is correct. These are people who are using the products in the field.

Q And, again, were there additional reports that continued to be published in other end users such as aluminum plant workers wearing asbestos aprons and gloves?

A Yes.

Q Further, plumbers, insulators?

A Plumbers, pipefitters and insulators, of course, and there were mentioned shipyard insulators, but these all are case reports in the literature.

Q Okay. And they continued to appear in the medical and scientific literature?

A And still do in some cases.

Q And still do?

A Yeah.

Q Now -- I am sorry, Doctor.

A This goes all the way through 1961, but it is still case reports.

Q Now, based upon the medical and scientific
