about fashion through circulation of a projected 25-point convention couched in general terms and pointing an accusing finger at no one but it obviously was designed to meet the fast-building Soviet block pressure against Marshal Tito's regime and pave the way for full-blown UN presentation of Yugoslavia's grievances.
 The draft convention was expected to come before the assembly's legal committee later during the session.
 Yugoslav officials here went out of their way to draw the attention of observers to the proposal and obviously attached considerable importance to it.
 It dovetailed with the constant theme of Yugoslav speeches at the current assembly: That the sovereignty of small nations must not be sacrificed.

embassy in retaliation for "unprecedented" measures by the two Cominform countries against representatives of Marshal Tito.
 Noting that Poland recently had expelled eight officials of the Yugoslav embassy in Warsaw while Czechoslovakia had thrown out four Yugoslav embassy diplomats and demanded the recall of Ambassador Marjan Stillingovic, the ministry of information announced the retaliation expulsions.
 The announcement said that Czech and Polish actions against Yugoslav diplomats "were undertaken in order to compromise the diplomatic mission of Yugoslavia and two undermine the reputation which Yugoslavia's representatives enjoy among the Polish and Czechoslovak peoples."
