Dear Miss Gibbons:

I'm sorry I missed your query in connection with the original order form. In my absence from the Laboratory, I presume that some member of the staff of the library handled the reprint order, and that the query was ignored or misunderstood. (I was out of Cincinnati from the middle of December until the latter part of January.)

I think it undesirable to include Dr. McCord's words about Dr. Johnstone and the Lectures for the reason that I plan to use these reprints for a bit of propaganda within industry. McCord's remarks would not hurt the cause but for many persons they would be irrelevant.

Thanks for your courtesy in bringing this to my attention.

Cordially,

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
Professor Emeritus of Occupational Medicine
