Subject: FW: Ideas for Dinner on the 4th

Hello Millan! Just checking on the Administrator's temperature for a dinner prior his speaking engagement on the 5th. Please know, I am completely fine with not doing anything the night prior. If I don't hear back by tomorrow morning, I will take it as a no go.

Sincerely,

Subject: Ideas for Dinner on the 4th

Good afternoon Millan, as discussed there are a couple of ideas for small private dinner or reception the evening of the 4th, if the Administrator is so inclined. Please remember, while I or my Executive team members have close relationships with the following, none have actually been contracted to attend. I thought best to clear this idea with you and your team first.

First idea is a dinner with owners and/or CEOs of companies effected by the EPA on a daily basis and who are supportive of the Administrator:

- Bill Hybl - President and CEO of El Pomar Foundation
- Phil Anschutz and/ or his son in law, who's name escapes me but is the CEO of oil and gas side of the Anschutz Corporation
- Larry Mizel - Chairmen and CEO MDC Holding
- George Solich - President and CEO FourPoint Energy
- Charlie McNeil - CEO of Nexgen Resources
- Jim Johnson - CEO & Chairman of GE Johnson

Another idea would be to meet with the CEO's of Industry Associations who are heavily impacted by the EPA;

- Colorado Mining Association
- Associated General Contractors of Colorado
- Colorado Oil and Gas Association
- Colorado Home Builders Association
- Western Energy Alliance

Our appreciation for Administrator Pruitt's commitment to remove or reduce barriers to business cannot be fully expressed. The idea of hosting a small private dinner or reception is only an effort to say thank you and maximize his trip to Colorado Springs. If Mr. Pruitt wishes to do something else Wednesday evening, I am here to help in any way.

Sincerely,
