Casserole With High Appeal

COMPLEMENT HAM with cheese and chives in a puffy soufflé. This is an unusual way to bring back ham leftovers for an encore.

To prepare this chivy soufflé, melt $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter or margarine in the top of a double boiler. Add $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour and blend well. Stir in $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups heated milk, 1 teaspoon salt and $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon cayenne pepper.

Cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Add 1 cup grated cheese and stir until cheese is melted and the mixture is smooth. Remove from heat. Add 1 cup finely ground ham and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup finely chopped chives.

Separate six eggs and beat the yolks until lemon colored. Add to the cheese sauce, stirring constantly. Cool the mixture. Beat the six egg whites until stiff and fold into soufflé mixture.

Bake in a greased or oiled two quart casserole in a slow oven 300 degrees F. for one hour. Serve at once. Serves six.
