In the Fall

You should give your buildings paint protection against winter weather, if they show the first sign of needing paint.

It isn't wise to wait till next spring simply because you've been in the habit of painting in the spring. The fall is a splendid painting season.

Come in and see us. Let us tell you why we advocate painting now with ANIMAL SWIMMERS.

The Squirrel is Very Swift and the Rabbit is Oddly Awkward.
Almost all animals know how to swim without having to learn it. As soon as they fall into the water or are driven into it they instinctively make the proper motions and not only manage to keep afloat, but propel themselves without trouble.
Exceptions are the monkey, the camel, giraffe and llama, which cannot swim without assistance. Camels and llamas have to be helped across water and giraffes and monkeys drown if they enter it. Now and then both of the latter species manage to cross wa-

WINDOW CLEANERS.

Working in Skyscrapers is Hard on Nerves and Stomachs.
"The reason that we are always advertising for window cleaners," said the foreman of a company that employs 200 men in this business, "is that so many men throw up their jobs after they have been at it a week or so. Some of them even do not last so long as that. A window cleaner can make as good wages as a mechanic or a motorman. The work is steady because nearly all the window cleaning in New York's big buildings is done by contract.
